

BLESSINGS

The autumn leaves and leaves of green
Are mixed throughout our earthly scene,
And we of Adam's blood-red race
Are led each day by Heaven's grace
To walk between the old and new
And count up, when the day is through,
The blessings and the gifts of love
That came to us from God above.

— David L. Hatton, 06/26/2013