

CONSEQUENTLY

The more we learn of Jesus,
The more there is to know.
The more He works to free us,
The more we get to grow.

The hazier our vision,
The more we need the Lord.
The better our decision,
The richer our reward.

The brighter lit the highway,
The narrower the trail.
The less we live it “my way,”
The less we fall and fail.

The less we turn to straying,
The less we try to fake.
The longer we are praying,
The stronger fight we make.

The more that Satan lures us,
The more we learn of war.
The more God’s healing cures us,
The more our spirits soar!

The more with Christ we’re walking,
The greater grace He’ll give:
The less we’ll show by talking,
And greater love we’ll live.

— David L. Hatton, 12/15/1993