

HOMOPHONIC MONOLOGUE

“I waive my right to wave goodbye to profits lost, as prophets cry their lesson not to lessen grace but pour out love, the poor embrace and mete out help to meet their need, this side the grave,” sighed Mr. Deed.

— David L. Hatton, 6/23/2020