*“But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach
a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned!”*

— Paul, Galatians 1:8

Long before Muhammad wrote,
Reciting from an angel’s lips,
Christ’s Apostle penned a note
Denouncing all such fellowships.

Altering what Moses taught,
That spirit, using Gabriel’s name,
Corrected, too, what Jesus brought:
Forgiveness and compassion’s claim.

Disregarding Gospel light,
Enraptured with that angel’s scheme,
Islam’s prophet seized the right
To rule within his forceful dream.

Power in the sword and rod,
Obedience in outward acts,
Distance in the Qu’ran’s God:
Pillars that the Gospel lacks!

Jesus Christ the Savior bled
As Sacrifice to set us free.
Once slain, now risen from the dead,
The Lamb of God says, “Follow Me.”

Hear Islam’s blindfolded cry:
“Submission to great Allah’s will!”
Christian faith knows how to die;
Muhammad’s flock knows how to kill.

Hell will swallow Muslim pride
Surviving by its bloody sword.
Heaven’s gates are open wide
For Christians martyred for their Lord.
