

LET JESUS REIGN!

Unless the Lord of glory
is Ruler of our tongue, There'll be no telling story of testimony sung.

Unless the cross is carried within our daily walk, Our old life won't stay buried in how we choose to talk.

Unless He is the Savior
that orchestrates release From sinful proud behavior, we'll miss His inner peace.

Unless we crown Him Master and Lord of everything, We're flirting with disaster, enthroning self as king.
