

THANKSGIVING ACROSTIC

Take care you don't just yearly say
How much for kith and kin you care.
Although they linger close each day,
No morn can vow they'll each be there.

Kiss sweetly often . . . hug them well,
So they will feel your gratitude—
Give signs in word and deed to tell,
In truth, your thankful attitude.

Vibrations from your grateful heart
Invite much deeper, stronger ties
Not even death can tear apart:
God knows how fast each lifetime flies!

— David L. Hatton, 11/22/2020