

VIRGINITY RESTORED

“Give me a new rear end,”
She cried,
“One never groped by a so-called friend!
I need a brand new bra,
One fastened tight from a lustful paw!
I want a clean inside!
Take off the weight of the piercing ride!
Give me a new rear end!”

“Bring back a virgin mind,”
She prayed.
“Repaint the dreams I once hoped to find. . .
Cover my naked skin
Meant for a mate, not a date of sin.
Grant me the marriage bed,
White, unstained gown on the day I wed.
Bring back a virgin mind.”

“Give Me your willing heart,”
God said.
“I’ll heal these wounds for a fresh new start.
Give Me the Father’s right:
Guarding you pure for your wedding night.
Sex was My marriage gift,
Pleasures with limits I will not lift.
Give Me your willing heart.”

— David L. Hatton 8/4/1991