

WRINKLES

Please, never treat your wrinkles
as if they were a blight.
Like stars that shine and twinkle,
they set the soul in sight.
They're formed in special places
as journey-marks, not scars.
God paints them on our faces
as part of who we are.

— David L. Hatton, 3/2/2009